Announcing 2019-2020 Extended Part-Time CPE Unit

30-week CPE Full Unit - September through April

Weekly Schedule:

Educational Seminar - Wednesdays 2 - 6pm

1-hour Individual Supervision & 10 clinical hours at TNJH

Rev Paul Steinke, ACPE Certified Educator

Rabbi Jonathan Malamy, ACPE Certified Educator Candidate

The New Jewish Home's CPE program is a satellite of the ACPE accredited Center for Pastoral Education at the Jewish Theological Seminary. CPE units through ACPE include at least 400 supervised hours of spiritual care practice and learning. Clinical work is 10 hours a week with patients and residents in post-acute rehab and long-term care. Clinical placements will be at our Manhattan facility or by arrangement possibly at one of our other sites. All students must participate in the weekly four-hour educational seminar (Wednesdays 2-6 pm) at The New Jewish Home 120 W 106th in Manhattan. The unit will be led by Rev. Paul Steinke and Rabbi Jonathan Malamy.

Students may include clergy people of all faith groups, seminarians, qualified laypeople, and other students with appropriate motivation and preparation for spiritual care and who want to learn in a multi-faith, collegial and challenging setting. Fall/Spring Extended Unit: Tuition $700 (due on the first day of the unit unless other arrangements have been made). Scholarships may be available based upon financial need. Additional stipends and other funding are sometimes available as well.
